

John Reilly is the team lead of the Senior Products section for the Life and Health Product Review Unit of the Florida Office of Insurance Regulation. He has worked for the Office since 2008, starting in the Special Investigations Unit of Market Investigations, handling Unauthorized Entities and Special Projects and then moving to the Life and Health section of Market Investigations focusing on statute and rule compliance and enforcement of licensed companies. In 2014, he moved to his current position reviewing advertising, policies, applications, riders, and related forms for long-term care and Medicare Supplement lines of business.

John graduated from Florida State University with a degree in Business Administration. He also earned the designation of Associate Professional in Insurance Regulation (APIR) from the National Association of Insurance Commissioners. John also represents the Office in related NAIC calls discussing compliance requirements, developing standards and addressing concerns.