

Roger Hayashi, CLU, ChFC
Owner/Principal
Summit Compliance Group, LLC

Roger's experience in the insurance and financial services industry spans nearly 30 years. He began his career in accounting and passed the CPA exam before focusing on compliance for the vast majority of his career.

Roger has held various compliance leadership positions with large insurance carriers and broker-dealers, including serving as chief compliance officer. He is currently a co-owner and principal of Summit Compliance Group, LLC – a compliance consulting and outsourcing firm that serves producers, marketing organizations, insurance carriers, and other financial institutions.

Roger received his Bachelor of Science degree in Accounting from the University of Nebraska – Lincoln. He lives in the Twin Cities area of Minnesota.