

Stephanie Pierce is a member of Dentons' Insurance Regulation practice. She assists insurance clients in a broad range of regulatory matters including compliance, market conduct examinations and investigations, product development, transactions, risk management and insolvency issues.

Prior to joining Dentons, Stephanie served as legal counsel in the Missouri Department of Insurance, where she served as counsel to the Market Regulation Division.