

Maureen James

Co-Owner

Summit Compliance Group, LLC

Maureen is co-owner of Summit Compliance Group, LLC, a consulting firm serving the compliance needs of the insurance, securities and investment advisory industries. She has 30 years of compliance experience, including an extensive background in advertising compliance spanning more than two decades. She has held numerous compliance management roles supporting corporate and field compliance initiatives, always embracing a strong client-centered approach. She has a deep understanding of the complex compliance challenges her clients face and is committed to helping them identify and mitigate their compliance risks with practical, proven solutions.